CINCINNATI, Oct. 8.—With two pitchers knocked out and the third going rapidly, the Reds had an off day, with a jinx of the largest size camped on the fence knocking out all efforts of the home team to get more than a single run over the plate. Cicotte and Schick appeared for the White Stockings while the Brewers started out with Sallee and Wingo. Sallee sent S. O. S. signs at the end of the fifth and was displaced by Fisher who signalled his advent in the box by letting in two runs. Pat Moran quickly ordered him out and sent in Luque who succeeded in keeping Chicago from running away with the game, but could not retrieve the losses of the early innings. Tomorrow the eighth game will be staged in Chicago where a capacity crowd will cheer the home team to a possible tie.

The attendance figures as announced by the national commission for yesterday's game at Chicago, were: Total attendance, 32,006. Gross receipts, exclusive of war tax, $101,768. Commission's share, $10,176.80. Clubs' and players' share, $91,591.20.
